"Everyone needs this music." -Larry Kelp/KPFA FM

"Above all, The Levins' harmonies recall the best of classic pop vocals... like The Beatles, James Taylor and Crosby, Stills, Nash & Young."

Dan Pine- J. / the news weekly of N.California

"The Levins folk music speaks the universal language of hope and compassion."

Serge Kozlovsky of Radio Magico, Belarus

"with more than a hint of the Sixties and Seventies ... This is the hippie Bay Area at its best — well produced and professionally polished. Vocal harmonies are sweet and clear, music is acoustic and gentle, a blend of pop, and folk. Lovely stuff. - East Bay Express, CA

"Along with your beautiful voices, your music celebrates our common humanity, reaching across cultural and religious borders, and the beauty of caring for each other." -L.Simon

Director of Family & Children's Services ,JCC of the East Bay

Ira & Julia Levin play acoustic music that ranges from folk to pop with the intention of putting a smile on your face. Their sweet harmonies and wonderful energy are an extension of their dedication to the upliftment of all. Both singer songwriters, Ira and Julia have had solo and separate music careers in their own right. Ira Levin is also known as Uncle Eye (as seen on PBS Kids!) and Julia tours with internationally acclaimed a cappella women's quartet, Vocolot. Together they have performed from California to Amsterdam as a duo singing for coffee houses, festivals and performance venues.

Their concerts are filled with songs that accentuate the connection between communities, with a light-hearted depth that delights audiences and reaches beyond borders. The overall effect is peace and merriment which they bring into whatever setting they find themselves.
